GIRL WAS SLAIN ON ANNIVERSARY

New York Police Holding Girl, 19, As Material Witness

Plain Plains, N. Y., April 30.—Ed F. Peacock, 22-year-old radio expert, Don Juan and dabbler in fiction and poetry, today calmly confessed to slaying his 20-year-old estranged wife, Dorothy Heinzelman Peacock whose burned body was found on an estate near Scarsdale, a Westchester county. District Attorney Frank H. Coyne announced after the suspect had been grilled for hours.

Shortly after Peacock confessed, authorities announced that Miss Frances Neuman, 19, of New York city had been taken into custody and that she was being held in Mount Vernon as a material witness. The police said they learned she was friendly with Peacock.

Describes Murder

Without a tremor in his voice, Peacock related shocking details of the crime which he at first blandly—almost nonchalantly—denied. And when he finished describing the murder he took the authorities to his home in Mount Vernon and showed them how he knocked his wife unconscious, and how he choked her to death.

He was formally booked on a charge of murder by the Mount Vernon police.

The girl was slain on the first anniversary of her marriage. After her husband's young husband had killed her, he took the body in an automobile and drove it to the spot near Scarsdale where it was found.

DEWEES DENIES MONTOUR DEAL TO BUY Y. & O.

Road Controlled By Coal Company Said To Be In Rail Market

Reports that the Montour Railroad company was negotiating for the purchase of the Youngstown and Ohio River railroad Interurban lines were denied by J. D. Dewees, general manager of the Y. & O. Monday afternoon.

Dewees stated that he had heard nothing of the attempted purchase.

The Montour railroad, according to rumors, is seeking control of railroad facilities that will connect the Youngstown steel district with the Ohio river. The rumors add that this company is negotiating for the purchase of the Youngstown & Suburban line, connecting Youngstown and Leetonia, and the Youngstown & Ohio River road, from Salem to East Liverpool via Leetonia.

This would offer a direct route from the steel territory to the river, and the report that a link would be built from the Y. & S. lines at Columbus across to the Y. & O. lines below Leetonia, is believed to be a part of the plans under way. The connection now is made at Leetonia.

The Montour recently was denied permission by the interstate commerce commission to construct a new railroad from Youngstown through Columbiana county to Smith's Ferry on the Ohio river. The Montour is now said to be back of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. in the reported purchase of the Y. & S.

The Montour is owned by the Pittsburgh Coal Co. The object of a direct railroad line to the river is to obtain cheap transportation on coal shipments to the steel district.

Chinese Lindbergh Pays His Respects To Ohio Governor

Columbus, April 30.—Visiting the governor's office here today, Tien Lai Huang, known as the "Chinese Lindbergh," paid his respects to Gov. Myers Y. Cooper. By plane, Huang is making a good will tour of the world.

Having visited airplane factories in Ohio, he is on his way to Texas to participate for a season in an aviation school.

Huang has traveled more than 50,000 miles by air, visiting Europe and North and South America. His trip is serving a three-fold purpose. He is acquiring knowledge of the latest developments in aviation, is hiring instructors for an aviation school to be started in China, and is arranging for the purchase of planes for China.

Four Assassinated

London, April 30.—Four Bulgarians, including one woman, were assassinated in Jugo-Slavian territory within 400 yards of the Bulgarian-Jugo-Slavian frontier today, according to a Central News dispatch from Sofia.

New York, April 30.—White-haired, 53-year-old Mrs. Mary Ware Dennett, the fighting grandmother, today began preparing for a possible trip to the Federal penitentiary in the near future—for the cause of free sex instruction to the young.

Next Thursday, the stay of execution of the $300 fine which she received following her conviction for sending "The Sex Side of Life" through mail, will expire.

"I shall never pay that fine as a protest against such a verdict," declared Mrs. Dennett today. "I shall go to jail first because the government is physically stronger than I."

Of course, Mrs. Dennett's counsel will appeal her conviction of violating the obscenity laws. The circuit court of appeals will hear the matter but legal observers predict there is little basis, from a judicial point of view, for a reversal of the verdict.

Meanwhile, a nation-wide campaign was underway today in support of Mrs. Dennett's stand. A number of prominent educators, ministers and doctors plan to sign a copy of the Dennett pamphlet and mail it to President Hoover as a further protest.

Assistant U. S. Attorney James E. Wilkinson, of Brooklyn, who conducted the case against Mrs. Dennett, declared that he would prosecute every signer of the pamphlet, if it were sent through the mails.

LENDEL APPEAL REACHES STATE SUPREME COURT

Seeking Nullification Of Civil Service Commission's Action

WON HIS TRIAL HELD AT LISBON

Former Canton Chief Is Demanding $7,000 Pay As Police Head

Columbus, April 30.—The case of Saranus A. Lengel, former Canton police chief, who was sentenced to serve a life term in the Ohio State Penitentiary for complicity in the Don Mellet assassination and was freed at a second trial after he had spent three months behind the walls of the penitentiary, was thrown in the Ohio Supreme Court here again today.

Attorneys for Lengel filed an appeal in Ohio's highest court seeking nullification of the action of the Canton Civil Service commission which upheld the action of former Mayor Stanford M. Swarts in removing Lengel, when the shadow of guilt had settled over the ex-police chief.

Seeks $7,000 Salary

Don Mellet, publisher of the Canton Daily News, was shot and killed from ambush as he entered his Canton home on the night of July 26, 1926.

In bringing the appeal, Lengel made the Canton Civil Service commission, former Mayor Swarts and City Auditor S. E. Barr, defendants.

The suit, in reality, is a movement by Lengel to get approximately $7,000 back pay that he alleges is due him for the time he spent out of office after he had been "ousted" until the time he was ordered reinstated.

Canton's common pleas court ordered the ex-chief re-instated, but the appellate court in that city reversed that order.

Lengel was appointed police chief in 1922 and served until August 23, 1926, when he was "fired" after he had become implicated in the Mellet murder. He stood trial and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The supreme court granted him a new trial and a change of venue.

At the second trial, held at Lisbon, Lengel was acquitted. Then he began his fight for re-instatement and back salary.

Pat McDermott, leader in the recent five-man escape from the penitentiary, is serving a life term in the institution for the same crime, as are also Ben Rudner, Massillon underworld figure, and Floyd Streitenberger, former Canton city detective. Louis Mazer, alleged gunman and "dope-peddler," is serving a manslaughter term on the same charge. He turned "state's evidence."

Salem Veteran Commended For Heroic Deeds By Custer Under Whom He Saw Service

William Pidgeon Has Congratulatory Order Written By Famous General As Civil War Closed; Recalls Many Stirring Incidents

The Third Cavalry division, under the leadership of Major General G. A. Custer, later massacred by Indians in his traditional "Custer's Last Ride," won unparalleled fame in the Civil War, participating in decisive battles for a period of three years without being defeated.

William H. Pidgeon, Franklin ave. now 84 years of age, was a member of the famous division, and in possession of a congratulatory order issued by Gen. Custer to each man in his company.

Taken Prisoner

The Third division centered its activities in Virginia, where many of the war's most crucial and decisive battles were fought. Pidgeon, enlisted in the Union army in Cleveland, at the age of 18, and for three years, participated in every engagement with his division.

Taken prisoner, with a comrade, by Confederate forces, on April 6, 1865, the last year of the war, Pidgeon and his friend escaped the same day, made a quick dash through the enemy's lines to their own company, and divulged information to their own forces that enabled them to capture 10,000 prisoners.

His partner in the act received a medal of honor for valorous work, but Pidgeon, then only 20 years of age, failed to make application for the award, and his part in the deed went unrewarded. The information responsible for the Union forces' decisive victory, Pidgeon reminisces, was given to Gen. Sheridan in his tent, following their escape.

Horse Shot, He Escapes

During Sheridan's famous ride, at one of the battles, known as the Battle of Cedar Creek, Pidgeon's horse was shot out from under him, but he made his escape, crawling on hands and knees, to the rear of the lines, where he was given another animal.

"Gen. Custer was a wonderful figure," Pidgeon relates. "He was loved by every man of the company, and respected even by the enemy. His long curls, flying in the wind during the battles, made him one of the outstanding figures of the war."

At Lee's Surrender

"My service in the war was of continued activity. We seldom stopped fighting, and I participated in every battle of the Shenandoah Valley, and after that joined in the chase of Gen. Lee," the rugged Salem veteran states.

"I felt all the pangs of anger that accompany the life of every soldier, slept wherever I could lay my head. (Continued on Page 4)

BIBLE CLASSES DINE TOGETHER

Presbyterian Men Hosts At Dinner; Niles Pastor Is Speaker

Young men of C. A. Haviland's, E. S. Vincent's and Dr. G. J. Hawkins' classes of the First Presbyterian Sunday school were guests of the Men's Brotherhood Bible class of that church at a fellowship dinner Monday night at the church.

There were 140 in attendance. John Koontz, president of the Brotherhood class, presided. Hundermark's seven piece orchestra played during the dinner. The meal was served by the Ladies Aid society.

Dr. Milton G. Hanna, Niles, moderator of the Presbyterian of Mahoning, and pastor of the Niles church, was the main speaker. His address related to Christian character.

Dr. Hanna discussed the character of statesmen who had a part in the building of the American government and emphasized the value of a clean character. He pointed out that there are men in communities who are not in a town without a church, because of the moral influence of the church. The speaker was of the opinion that Jesus Christ was the rock on which to build a sound character.

Harry Smith, superintendent of young people's work in the Perry township Sunday school organization, asked the moral support of this group of men in the young people's activities of the city. Dr. P. H. Gordon, pastor of the church, gave a brief talk.

PETITIONS WILL BE CIRCULATED, LEADERS CLAIM

Attorneys For Opponents Prepare to Put Bill Before Voters

REQUIRE ACTION WITHIN TEN DAYS

Ten Per Cent of Vote At Last Election Needed To Sign Petition

Petitions seeking a referendum on the street renaming ordinance, passed by city council three weeks ago, will be circulated through the city within the next two days, it was learned today from authoritative sources.

Attorneys representing opponents to the measure announced that petitions had been prepared, and action in presenting the legislation for popular vote at the November election will get under way within the next 48 hours.

The 30 day period, allotted opponents of municipal measures to secure signatures of 10 per cent of the city's electors on petitions for the referendum, will expire in ten days. The ordinance was passed in council April 10.

Seek Signatures

No petitions have been circulated, according to the announcement, but leaders in the fight against the bill were certain that the necessary number of signatures will be obtained within the remaining ten days.

The ordinance was passed by unanimous vote of council members, but opposition from residents of several streets has been strong for the last four months. Several interested parties have appeared at council meetings, voicing opinions on the issue, and promised stringent action in case the solons passed it.

Work against the ordinance, since its passage, has been done quietly, but progress in assuring its appearance on ballots in the November election has been reported by its opponents.

Mayor Opposes Bill

Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston twice vetoed the ordinance, in the first case forcing council to drop it because of its illegality, then continued it and promised it when a second was drafted. He stated today that work was under way to secure the referendum, but withheld further information.

Ten per cent of the total number of persons casting ballots at the 1927 election are required to be represented on the petitions, before it will be submitted before the people next November.

Following their circulation, the petitions must be filed with either City Auditor Helen Woerther or F. L. Griffin, clerk of council. It is then submitted to the county board of election, which takes necessary action to place it on the ballots.

GETS PRIESTLY CHEMIST MEDAL

"Greatest Lay Patron of Chemistry" Honored at Big Convention

Columbus, April 30.—The Priestly medal, the highest honor in American chemistry, has been awarded for 1929 to Francis Patrick Garvan, New York city criminal lawyer, who has been often called "the greatest lay patron of chemistry in this country," it was announced here today.

The award was made "for distinguished service to chemistry" by the Priestly medal committee of the American Chemical society, which is holding its 77th annual meeting here.

About 2,600 scientists are present. Garvan is president of the American Chemical Foundation, Inc., New York, and was alien-property custodian under President Wilson. The medal, which was founded in memory of Joseph Priestly, discoverer of oxygen, will be presented to Garvan at the fall meeting of the society in Minneapolis.

At one of its meetings, the society urged that Josiah Willard Gibbs, pioneer worker in the field of physical chemistry, be given a place in the "Hall of Fame" in New York city.

It was also announced that Mr. and Mrs. Garvan had presented $30,000 as prizes to be awarded during the 1929-30 essay contest in chemistry. The contest is open to all schools, from high schools to universities. About 500,000 participated in last year's contest.

Secretary Charles Parsons, Washington, reported to the council that the society now has a membership of 17,773, making it the largest professional organization of its kind in the world.

EDUCATION

Statements concerning the material value of education are inaccurate and unjustified by facts, according to Harold E. Clark, professor of education at Teacher's college, Columbia university.

Clark points out that comparisons made between schooled and unschooled persons are inaccurate, because examples chosen are unequal quantities. The man or woman who goes to college usually has the advantage of more resources than those who don't. It is also pointed out in his statements that, in the cases of brothers who have had unequal amounts of schooling, results show that the longer one goes to school, above a certain minimum, the less is his income. He has been losing time and has inflicted a handicap on himself by a late start.

A common sense deduction, made by the professor is that scarcity is a necessary element of value and that educated people receive higher wages, only when educated people are scarce. The vast production of college and university graduates at the present time has removed this element of value from education.

In regard to cultural values, it is admitted that education for education's sake may be worth while, but when considered in that light, education becomes an element of consumption and should not be expected to increase production.

Although he defends the desirability of education from the standpoint of ethical and spiritual standards, Professor Clark thinks it is all the more important that it be known how much education is economically justifiable, how much aids production and how much is consumption. Only after such conclusions have been reached, will it be possible to ascertain just how much of each of the kinds of education should be provided.

These observations by a man whose profession is the training of teachers are very interesting. They are evidence of a liberal, broad-minded attitude.

The most attractive appeal for education, in an age the banner of which bears the symbol of the dollar, is economic betterment. How much will it increase earning capacity? The attitude is illustrated by a mill foreman who asked a liberal arts school graduate who was working under him if he knew how to operate a comptometer. Under receiving a negative answer, he expressed surprise and said, "What! I thought all college students had to learn to run one."

The most serious deficiency in the courses offered by the liberal arts colleges is vagueness. Too many students seeking definite information which will be of practical value are allowed to spend their time in pursuit of more or less abstract knowledge in the faith that, by some miracle, it will help them to make a living. After all, it is necessary to feed the body, before the soul can blossom.

Universal education, the dream of educators, would be practical only if subject matter were also made universal. Universal education under existing conditions, would result in cut-throat competition in the professions that depend on limited numbers for existence.

Educational possibilities are sources of social revenue that have hardly been prospected yet. It is only natural that in a civilization which adopts wealth as a criterion of success economic advantage should be used to gain converts.

What Others Say

REGARDING AMENDMENTS
Congressman Tinkham's letter to Mr. Hoover, suggesting the importance of enforcing the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, along with the eighteenth, was a model of logic. The amendments conferring rigorous and privileges of citizenship on our colored population are as much parts of the constitution as the amendment that denies them the right to make and sell liquor; and they have been more openly and brazenly flouted in that part of the country they were intended to affect than the prohibition amendment has ever been.

The South has virtually disfranchised its colored citizenry. The penalty for that is a reduction in the representation of the offending states in congress. Yet no party in power in Washington has ever made a serious effort to enforce that penalty. Whenever it has been suggested in congress that the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments be enforced, southern members have risen in their wrath and threatened to defend "white supremacy" with arms if necessary. They have always gotten away with it.

The South has boasted that it was largely instrumental in putting over the eighteenth amendment as "a joke on the North." The enforcement of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments would be a joke on the South, which it might not like. That, however, is not the reason why these amendments should be carried out. The real reason is that the respect which the constitution should enjoy in all parts and among all classes in the country will not be attained so vital a section of it as that protecting the rights of citizens from disfranchisement on account of race and color is flouted by nearly one-fourth of the states.

The eighteenth amendment is no more sacrosanct than any other part of the constitution. Those who plead for greater respect for this particular enactment should be able to see that it must stand or fall with the rest of the fundamental law. The obedience of the eighteenth amendment, which they are so anxious to obtain, will be more easily secured if obedience to the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments is demanded with equal sincerity and force.—Detroit Free Press.

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, May 1
THE astrological forecast for this day points to unforeseen change and unexpected openings, but these probably will be the normal outcome of long devotion to affairs in hand, with industry and application, patience and perseverance. These prospects may involve change of environment or travel but in any case will bring advancement and reward. In purely personal affiliations there is an augury of discord and friction.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of unforeseen benefits, with substantial opportunities for reaping returns from perseverance, fortitude and industry under trying circumstances. There may be radical change, but let not the good prospects provoke personal friction, inharmonious or indiscretions. A child born on this day may be original, ingenious and independent in thought and action, but at the same time it will be practical, painstaking and faithful. It may need early discipline in self-control and training in these qualities making for personal amiability and harmony in its life.

Being different always costs more—and is usually worth it.

—Glen Buck.

WHEN GROWN PEOPLE GET WHOOPING COUGH

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

We are inclined to laugh at unusual things. Nobody smiles if told that Mrs. Smith's child has the whooping cough. But everybody snickers on being told that Mrs. Smith has the disease.

I suppose it seems funny that the lady did not have the ailment when she "ought to have it," in childhood. It seems a childish thing to have whooping cough at twenty-eight.

But grown people do have it. They may have very severe forms of it, too. It is a terribly annoying ailment for anybody to have.

I can well recall how I dreaded those spasms. I thought I should die before being able to breathe again. My kind father, a big, strong man, would lift me out of bed and, as he held me over his shoulder, assured me I had nothing to fear.

We need moral support in some of our afflictions. This is one of them.

Whooping cough is not particularly dangerous when met in grown persons or older children. It is always serious in tiny babies.

This is a germ disease. Even about this common ailment we have a good deal to learn. I shall be glad when we have a sure means of protection against all infectious

THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT OUR SERVICE

The Low Cost of Electricity

NO WOMAN can afford to be a drudge. This is one way of summing up a recent statistical report on the cost of electricity in comparison with the cost of living during the past ten years. No woman can afford to do drudging work that electricity will do for a few cents an hour.

Food, shelter and clothing have nearly doubled in cost during the past decade, while electricity is actually lower in cost than it was ten years ago. The reasons for this decrease in cost are: first, the tremendous increase in consumption of electrical power; second, the new inventions and improvements in generating methods; and third, the efficiency in the management of power companies.

Electricity today is probably one of the lowest items on your household budget—and yet it renders you the most invaluable service—day and night.

MOB THREATENS BOOZE RAIDERS

Cleveland Police Launch
Another Drive; Crowd
Of 1,000 Gathers

Cleveland, April 30.—The drastic drive which police launched yesterday following the attempted dynamiting of the homes of a police captain and a sergeant, was continued today after a series of raids last night which brought a threatening situation.

The officers worked in the Mayfield road section, whose residents are largely foreigners. After raiding a pool room where they seized more than 1,000 bottles of alleged beer, two detective squads found a distilling plant and began dismantling it in the usual fashion with axes and sledge hammers.

A crowd estimated at more than 1,000 had gathered in the street as the police reappeared with two battalions of 100-gallon capacity. The mob had cut the tires on the squad tires and appeared threatening.

The raiders summoned reinforcements and commanded the crowd to stand back. One officer drew his gun and struck several men and other detectives lashed out with their fists. The crowd offered a little resistance and kept at a safe distance from a police car in which a detective sat behind a machine gun.

A quantity of alleged liquor and mash was destroyed.

Protests against the "axe raids" were voiced during the city council meeting last night, one councilman offering sarcastically to the "mob experiment" which required policemen to break up furniture and destroy phonographs, radios and other property in the course of their raids.

FLOWER SHOW ARRANGED FOR NEXT OCTOBER

Sebring, April 30.—An amateur flower show is to be given in Sebring sometime this fall, probably in October, according to Ira Wallace Sebring florist.

Wallace has interested a number of people in the show, among them Mrs. M. A. Sothern, Mrs. George Clarke, Mrs. Glenn McClure and Homer Barber of Beloit.

These people have formed a committee which is planning the show. Anyone may enter flowers providing they are grown by the entrants. Professional greenhouse men are, of course, eliminated.

It is planned to secure some building in Sebring and to place on display the hundreds of flowers given by the amateurs. Within a short time the committee plans to get to pick a building location for the exhibit.

Another stride in increasing air travel safety was made here recently with tests of a device that automatically throws passengers out of a plane in disaster. In an accident the pilot loses a lever and the floor of the plane drops out. The passengers fall out and their parachutes open automatically, lowering them to the ground.

In Eight Weeks I Gained Twenty Pounds," He Says

Konjola Went to Source Of Ailments; Lauds New Medicine

MR. STEVE SOBERDASH

"After suffering for two years from stomach trouble, Konjola quickly and surely restored my health so that I feel like a different person," said Mr. Steve Soberdash, 1622 Florida Avenue, Youngstown.

"When I was nineteen years old I was extremely weak and lacking in strength and energy. I was unable to eat a meal without suffering intensely afterward from pains. This had my appetite and I ate but little. Still I suffered from gas, indigestion and acidity of my stomach. I experienced vomiting spells quite often."

A friend recommended Konjola. I bought his endorsement. I decided to try it. All my ailments were returned. I have gained weight and am strong as any other man. I eat whatever I pleased before me, relish the food and am properly nourished. It is a wonderful thing to be free from two years' suffering, and I owe it to Konjola. To me there can be no other medicine like Konjola.

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. C. Lewis drug stores and by all the drug stores in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Talkies In White House, Next Move

Washington, April 30.—Preparations are being made to show "the talkies" in the White House.

The executive mansion is being wired for production of sound pictures, and shortly President Hoover expects to have his private sound-operator functioning for presidential entertainments.

E. L. Johnson, chief petty officer of the navy, who formerly was attached to the yacht Mayflower, has been detailed to New York to study operation of the sound movies, with a view to future White House duty.

RAID 7 PLACES IN WELLSVILLE

Wellsville, O., April 30.—Raiding seven places here Saturday afternoon, during which they netted one gambling arrest, Wellsville police, headed by Chief John Fultz, launched a "clean-up" campaign which, Fultz says, will continue indefinitely.

Guy Sapanaro, Fourteenth street, was arrested on a charge of gambling. He was fined $25 by Acting Mayor Clyde Baker. He paid and was released.

As an aftermath of the Saturday afternoon campaign, Patrolmen Cole and Pugh Saturday night arrested Ralph Martino, Main street, on a charge of possession. Martino paid a fine of $100 and costs at a hearing before Baker and was released.

"Break down the doors if they won't let you in," is Chief of Police Fultz's instructions to his officers in cases of suspected violations or where violations have occurred before.

In one of the seven places raided Saturday afternoon, the proprietor, Fultz says, foiled the police by dumping a quantity of something, believed to be liquor, in the sink. He then turned on the water to rinse out the pipes before police could intervene.

Norris Will Lead Fight On Lenroot

Washington, April 30.—A battle over confirmation of former Senator Irvine L. Lenroot (R) of Wisconsin, as a justice on the United States court of customs and patents appeals was assured when the Senate Judiciary Committee approved the appointment by an eleven to four vote.

The minority, led by Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska, chairman of the committee, will contest Lenroot's confirmation by the senate.

The committee favorably reported a long list of President Hoover's new judicial appointments, topped by the name of former secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, who was named as a judge on the ninth judicial circuit bench.

LELAND STARTS 2-DAY WATCH "TRADE-INS"

Salem Jeweler's Prediction of One Year Ago Fulfilled, That Other Jewelers Would Adopt New System.

The Leland Watch Shop, Jewelers, at 68 Main Street have announced another "watch trade-in sale" for May 1st to 3rd.

Mr. Leland predicted when he announced his first trade-in sale that others would adopt this plan and says that judging from many requests he has received for an outline of this plan, that it is now quite universally used.

In this unique feature in selling watches a certain amount is allowed on the purchase of a new watch. "It is simply a natural development of the watch business," explains Mr. Leland. "There isn't any reason why people should carry or wear a watch that is out of date any more than to wear obsolete clothes, or drive an auto of the 1929 period."

"The fact cannot be overlooked today, that the world is moving at a very fast pace. Styles in Watches, Jewelry, houses, clothes, furniture are quickly changing to meet present day needs. There is no reason why 'trade-ins' should not apply to other lines as well as automobiles."—Adv.

BIDS ARE ASKED FOR TWO ROADS

Rogers - Clarkson Rd. and
New Waterford Link
On Program

Resolutions asking for bids for the improvement of two roads in Columbiana county have been passed by the county commissioners, and estimates are now being worked up by County Survey Lloyd C. Kirk.

The roads to be improved with a new traffic bound surface are the Rogers-Clarkson road and the East Palestine-New Waterford road.

The Rogers-Clarkson road will tap the new East Liverpool-Youngstown highway just south of Rogers, and will give the Clarkson district two outlets over improved highways, an east and west road having been built from the East Liverpool-Youngstown road to Clarkson last fall.

In determining to improve the East Palestine-New Waterford road, there is reason for believing that traffic on the Cox Highway out of East Palestine westward will be relieved. The present road between East Palestine and New Waterford is exceedingly worn and rough with the exception of a new section east of New Waterford built last year. The improved road will also prove of advantage to Peace Valley Park, which is the only pleasure resort in that part of the county.

Recently the county commissioners were petitioned to improve the Clarkson-Rogers road, but no definite word was given at that time when the matter would be given final consideration. It is now assured that both roads will be improved with a traffic bound surface.

OHIO STUDENT BOUND TO TREE SUFFERS SHOCK

Robber Takes Car and Binds Youth
To Tree For 24 Hours; Suffers From Exposure

Chillicothe, April 30.—Joseph Ferneau, Jr., 20, of Bainbridge, near here, was in a local hospital today in a greatly weakened condition after having been tied to a tree for 24 hours in a woods near here by a young robber who stole the youth's car, watch and a small amount of money.

According to the story that Ferneau, a student at the Ohio State university at Columbus, gasped out to police after he was found yesterday afternoon, he had given the robber a "lift" in his car.

When they reached a point about two miles from this city, the robber, described by Ferneau as a young man, forced Ferneau from the car and into a nearby woods. Once there, Ferneau related, the robber took his belt and tied the university student to a tree, gagged and robbed him and then fled.

Ferneau was found yesterday by Jimmy Johnson, of McArthur, near here, who happened into the woods hunting groundhogs. He released Ferneau and county authorities and the lad's parents were notified.

The youth was taken to a hospital here and is said to be suffering from shock and exposure. It will be several days before he is allowed to leave the hospital.

Ferneau was forced to spend the

HOOVER FACING SKIRMISHES IN SENATE TODAY

Mellon, Debenture Plans And National Origins Act Debated

Washington, April 30.—The administration faced political skirmishes in the senate today on three widely separated battle fronts due to strenuous opposition to presidential policies.

The clash over President Hoover's right to retain Andrew W. Mellon as secretary of the treasury was before the senate judiciary committee where another effort was to be made to reach a decisive vote.

A private poll of the committee by International News Service revealed seven senators lined up with the president and Mellon with six senators favoring the Norris resolution, which would declare Mellon ineligible for his cabinet post. Four senators were recorded as "doubtful," indicating the final vote would be close.

The senate agricultural committee met at the same time to determine whether the testimony of two department of agriculture experts should be made public. These experts, Eric England and O. C. Stine, endorsed the export debenture plan of farm relief. Their advice was ignored by the president when he wrote congress he would not approve the plan.

If the experts' testimony is published, it will serve to indicate the president did not follow the advice of his most qualified subordinates—a revelation that administration leaders will seek to block.

The third skirmish was on the immigration front, where a number of bolting Republican leaders, aided by numerous Democrats, are fighting the president's appeal for repeal of the national origins act. Senator David A. Reed (R) of Pennsylvania, already has described the president's recommendation as "shocking" and threatened to block any action on it at the special session, despite Mr. Hoover's appeal.

In the battle over Secretary Mellon's cabinet seat, the president probably will win a victory in the end. The contest, however, may cause him considerable embarrassment before a decision is reached.

College Education Costs $710 A Year

How much should a college education cost? In a recent questionnaire, Mount Union college students estimated the cost from $400 to $1,200 per year. The average cost, however, was only $710.

The average figure allows $220 for tuition, $315 for room and board, and $175 for other expenses, including clothing and transportation. Many of the students who are working for their room and board, or have secured part time jobs, figured the actual cash cost as low as $250 and $300. The number spending as much as $1,000 per year was small in comparison with those who were under the estimated average.

YOUTH ADMITS

first anniversary of my wedding I excused myself and went to 61 West 143 Street (New York City) and called on my wife who was living there as Lillian Manney.

Quarrel Follows
"We rode up to the Grand Concourse and when we got to my home in Mount Vernon, we got out of the car and went upstairs.

"She said: 'Well, this looks like the same old dump.' I resented this and a quarrel ended with her clawing me.

"I then picked up a weight and hit her on the head. She struggled with me and she screamed. I put my hands over her throat and mouth. She tried to get my pistol away from me but finally she laid out helpless on the floor. Then I discovered her legs were cold and that she was bleeding in the face.

"I then washed the blood off my face and hands and wrapped her head in a towel so that the blood would not get my car dirty. I carried her out about 3 o'clock in the morning and laid her out on the floor in the rear of the car. Her legs were too long so I doubled her up to get her into the car."

Sets Fire To Body
Peacock's confession then related how he drove through parts of Mount Vernon and Yonkers, and finally stopped at a point on Ardsley road where he lifted the body out of the car. This was about 6 o'clock last Saturday morning.

He said he saw two milk bottles standing in front of a Mount Vernon restaurant. He took them to the Fleetwood garage in Mount Vernon where they sold him a quart of kerosene for a nickel. Then he proceeded to the place where he hid the body.

"I sprinkled the body with kerosene," his confession stated. "Then I lit the fire after I had first removed the shoes. They were suede shoes and they are now in my wife's hope chest."

"I loved her. Don't let there be any doubt about that."

Arraigned Today

After he had signed the confession, Peacock was brought to this city where he was questioned further. Then he led the police to a place in White Plains, where he told them he had discarded a blood-stained shirt after disposing of the body. He was then returned to jail here and booked on the murder charge.

The police said Peacock apparently had a bright mind and his radio library was excellent.

Peacock was to be arraigned later today before a magistrate on the murder charge. The authorities said they anticipated he would be held for the grand jury without bail and that the case would be quickly presented to the grand jury.

Pictures Farmers And Chemists On Way To Prosperity

Columbus, April 30.—The picture of the farmers and the chemists of the country walking hand in hand to prosperity was portrayed today in a speech before a symposium on "Economic Relations between Chemistry and Farming," one of the feature events of the 77th annual convention of the American Chemical society at the Ohio State university here.

Charles H. MacDowell, president of the Armour Fertilizer Works of Chicago, delivered the address.

It follows, in part:
"The health and well being of the soil and of its output is a fundamental factor in the health, efficiency, and maintenance of a progressive civilization."

"This is the farmer's direct responsibility. The soil is his primary storehouse for raw materials."

"Fertilizers undoubtedly comprise, by far, the largest tonnage of prepared chemicals used on the farm, but they are by no means the only ones. Plant life and animal life are subject to pests and parasites as well as diseases and epidemics. Chemicals are necessary to combat these."

"The chemicals used on the farm are quite varied in character and quite imposing in quantity. They represent a substantial share of the total chemical business of the country. The prosperity of the chemical manufacturer is directly and integrally bound up with the prosperity of the farmer."

SALEM VETERAN

and then with one eye open. We were always on the go."

He participated in the ceremonies at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, where Gen. Lee submitted his surrender, and there Gen. Custer submitted to each of his men the order, commending them on their wonderful services.

While at Washington, during a short period, Pidgeon saw President Abraham Lincoln on several occasions, and was greatly impressed by the man's extraordinary personality.

Pidgeon returned to his home in Salem, residing at that time on Lincoln ave, and with Martin Howell, organized a traveling circus in 1874. A menagerie of animals, freaks, and other curiosities made up the troupe, and they roamed the country for a year, known as the Baird, Howell and Company circus.

Operated Brick Factory

The circus not being any financial success, its originators returned to Salem, and for five years, Pidgeon was employed with the Bell Telephone company, laying lines for first telephones. He also in about 1880, operated a brick factory on the land now occupied by Kelly Stadium. Part of this land at that time was a pond, Pidgeon states, and they dug clay from it for the manufacture of brick.

The brick business was very extensively operated for some time, until the clay supply was exhausted, and a new plant was located on what is now known as the Pidgeon road, south of Salem, between Lisbon and Depot roads.

The congratulatory order, one of the veteran's most cherished possessions, follows:

Custer's Letter

"Headquarters Third Cavalry Division
Appomattox Court House,
April 9, 1865

"Soldiers of the Third Cavalry Division—

"With profound gratitude toward the God of battles, by whose blessings our enemies have been humbled, and our arms rendered triumphant, your commanding general avails himself of this, his first opportunity, to express to you his admiration of the heroic manner in which you have passed through this series of battles which today resulted in the surrender of the enemy's entire army."

"The record established by your indomitable courage is unparalleled in the annals of war. Your prowess has won for you the respect of your enemies. During the past six months although in most instances confronted by superior numbers, you have captured from the enemy in open battle 117 pieces of field artillery, 65 battle-flags, and upwards of 10,000 prisoners of war, including seven general officers. Within the past ten days, and included in the above, you have captured 46 pieces of field artillery and 37 battle-flags."

Never Defeated

"You have never lost a gun—never lost a color—and have never been defeated. And notwithstanding the numerous engagements in which you have borne a prominent part, including those memorable battles of the Shenandoah, you have captured every piece of field artillery the enemy has dared open upon you."

"The near approach of peace renders it improbable that you will again be called upon to undergo the fatigues of the toilsome march, or the exposure of the battle field; but, should the assistance of keen blades welded by your study arms be required to hasten the coming of glorious peace for which we have been so long contending, the general commanding is proudly confident that in the future, as in the past, every demand will meet with hearty and willing response. Let us hope that our work is done, and that, blessed in the comfort of peace, we may soon be permitted to enjoy the blessing of home and friends."

"For our comrades who have fallen, let us ever cherish a grateful remembrance. To the wounded and to those who languish in Southern prisons, let our heartfelt sympathies be tendered."

"And now, speaking for myself alone when the war is ended, and the task of the historian begins; when those deeds of daring which have rendered the name and fame of the Third Cavalry division imperishable are written and inscribed upon the bright pages of our country's history, I ask only that my comrades who have fallen, and the Commander of the Third Cavalry Division, be remembered."

"G. A. Custer, Brevet Major General"

CONVERT CORN INTO LACQUER

Crop Once Converted Into Whiskey Now of Commercial Value

Columbus, April 30.—Corn crops, which once were converted into whiskey, are now being used in the manufacture of solvents for the Lacquer Industry, Major T. P. Walker, of the Commercial Solvents company, Terre Haute, Indiana, today told the seventy-seventh annual meeting of the American Chemical society at Ohio State university in an address on "the farm as a producer of chemical raw materials."

"The production of butyl alcohol, acetone and ethyl alcohol by the fermentation process consumes 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels of corn annually," said Major Walker. "This is 25 per cent of the number of bushels formerly used in the manufacture of spirituous liquors."

"One solvent plant alone, located at Peoria, Illinois, now uses as much corn for the manufacture of solvents as it formerly used in its numerous whiskey distilleries."

Major Walker spoke before the society's division of industrial and engineering chemistry at a symposium on "economic relations between chemistry and agriculture."

"Of actual and potential raw material produced on the American farm, our two major crops—corn and cotton—are of prime importance."

"More than fifty chemical products are derived from the corn kernel. Included among them are such things as table oil, soap and glycerine, rubber substitute, fertilizer, starch, alcohol, corn syrup, tanner's sugar and vegetable glue."

FOUR ARE DEAD IN WET FIGHT

Paintsville, Ky., April 30.—Four persons are known to be dead and three others are reported to have been killed in a pitched battle at a mountain moonshine still on Jennings Creek in the Wildcat mountains section of Johnson county today.

The known dead are Lee Gibson, his wife and their son, and Wallace Hannah.

Wayne Hannah, brother of Wallace, was probably fatally shot in the battle, which was said to have followed a dispute over the operation of the still, owned jointly by the Gibson and Hannah families.

Authorities rushed to a hospital today to question Wayne Hannah, who was brought here, shot through the lungs.

Sisters Win Land, Air, Water Race With Death Today

Newton, Iowa, April 30.—Two sisters, Mrs. Fred W. Jasper and Miss Stella McCord, won their water, air and land race with death today.

Their dying father, M. A. McCord, 85, former mayor of Newton and former sheriff of Jasper county, still was alive when they reached his bedside this morning.

Fully conscious he was overjoyed at seeing his daughters. Although he was apparently stronger than he had been in several days, his physicians still momentarily expected the end.

The sisters, returning from a European cruise when a radio message notified them of their father's serious illness, completed the last lap of their journey by train today, after the plane, carrying them from New York, was forced down by fog near Chicago.

Vienna—Lieutenant Robert Kronfeld, who has soared 4,182 feet in a home-made motorless glider, believes he holds a world's record.

Want To Motor Thru Europe? Auto Club Will Aid You

A. A. A. members who contemplate taking their cars abroad this summer will be interested in a statement issued today by Albert P. Morris, manager of the Columbiana County Motor club.

The shipping of cars for use abroad in the past has entailed so much red tape that many times the individual tourist has foregone this pleasure," says Morris.

This part of foreign travel has been greatly simplified for A. A. A. members by the creation of a Foreign Travel department by the American Automobile association which is the American member of the Alliance Internationale de Tourisme an international organization composed of the principal touring clubs of the United States and Europe.

Need Passport

"The cost ranges from $35 to $50 for customs papers, driving licenses and all incidentals in connection with the issuance of documents. A $100 cash deposit is required. The balance is covered through the medium of an insurance customs bond and when all papers are returned to the association properly discharged, the cash deposit is refunded. Car insurance, both marine and European, is taken care of and the foreign insurance rate is based upon the horsepower and value of the car."

"Cars are now shipped on most Transatlantic liners uncrated as baggage, the rates varying, depending upon the size and weight of the car. However, the average car will cost $300 round trip and in some instances a lower rate prevails."

"So, now, when a man is going to Europe with his car, the necessary thing is to provide a passport for his car, just as it is necessary for him to have a passport issued by the State Department at Washington."

Foreign Plates

"American license plates are not honored in most European countries for travel, this in view of the fact that our government could not sign the International Convention of 1909 held in Paris, since the federal authorities have no jurisdiction over the operation, taxation, or regulation of motor vehicles in our various states. Accordingly, a set of foreign plates is secured and is presented to the tourist by the A. A. A. port agent upon arrival abroad."

"The tourist must also have a driving license before the international traveling pass can be issued. This is secured without the personal examination of the driving ability that previously was necessary upon entering each country and that occupied half a day, as now the home club is authorized to certify that its member is authorized to drive in OHIO and is known to be a competent driver."

"The tourist has to get his own passport from the United States Department of State, which is easily arranged. However, the visas for the countries to be visited will be secured by the Foreign Division of the Club. Then he is advised to have the marine insurance to guard his car against injury while in transport. This is all arranged at very moderate rates. Compulsory insurance is required in some European countries and as insurance policies issued by American countries are not acceptable abroad, it is advisable to short-rate the American policy and take out insurance with an European."

BRITTEN HITS GIBSON'S PLAN TO LIMIT ARMS

Illinois Man Sees Great Naval and Military Powers Built Up

Washington, April 30.—A congressional investigation through naval and military affairs committees will be invoked if necessary to prevent consummation of the disarmament proposals made at Geneva by American Ambassador Hugh Gibson, it was indicated today by Rep. Fred A. Britten, (R) of Illinois, chairman of the House Naval Affairs committee.

Bringing Gibson's plan for both naval and military limitation as one of the "most amazing pieces of diplomacy" in the nation's history, Britten has started a lone fight to force congress to action.

If there is the slightest prospect of serious consideration by the League of Nations disarmament conference of the Gibson proposals, it would be entirely natural for the naval, military and foreign affairs committees to thoroughly investigate the matter in the regular session," he said.

Build Military Powers
An analysis of Gibson's proposals partly he asserted, discloses that the plan would make Great Britain the permanent overlord of the world's navies and make France the greatest military power on the globe.

Great Britain and France together, he said, would rule Europe, and every other nation on the continent would lay responsibility for the situation on the United States.

Heads of the American Army and Navy have fought both of Gibson's proposals in the past, he said.

"I can't understand why two distinctly American principles have been tossed overboard by Gibson," said Britten. "America should not consent to be a second class naval power merely for the sake of having an agreement with England nor should we lend ourselves to the upbuilding of the greatest military forces that Europe has ever known, merely to curry favor with France."

GROUND BROKEN FOR BIG ARENA
Salem, April 30.—Ground has been broken for an open-air arena in Sebring, capable of seating between 3500 and 4000 people. James Palermo, Sebring fight promoter, is getting the structure and hopes to have it completed in time for a fight, and about June 1.

The arena will be octagon-shaped and will cost about $3,500, Palermo estimates. It is being built entirely of wood with the exception of the roof which will be covered with painted white bisque ware from Sebring potteries.

A 10-foot fence will surround the building. The bleachers will be 10 feet high. The bowl will measure 110 by 110 feet.

The new arena is being built on ground owned by Palermo at Fourth street and Maryland avenue. It is located just back of the Palermo home, 206 Maryland avenue. Entrance to the bowl will be one block east of Fifteenth street on Maryland avenue.

Palermo plans to stage all his summer boxing exhibitions in the auditorium and will rent it for other uses.

LINDY SCORED FOR RETICENCE

Newspapers Attack Flying Colonel For Abrupt Treatment Of Reporters

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—Two Indiana newspapers recently have taken Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh to task for his abrupt treatment of newspapermen in their attempts to follow his air travels.

The Indianapolis Star said editorially:

"The Colonel's better judgment should recognize a certain responsibility to his fellow citizens until after his marriage to Miss Anne Morrow."

The importance of the flying man and well wishers are undoubtedly true, and yet that is the penalty fame must pay. H. C. Lindbergh will concede his impatience and give the press some intimation of his flying schedule he will spare himself considerable annoyance and relieve the country of further unwarranted scares when he is listed in the missing column."

But the patience of the Shelbyville Ind., Republican with Colonel Lindbergh's secretiveness was not as great.

A recent editorial said:

"It is recent weeks 'Lindy' has acquired the habit of 'snapping off' the newspapermen in the towns and cities where he lands. This is unfortunate if it is all true. Many editors do not assign dollars to go out to meet Lindbergh. The majority of these reporters are better generally versed than the noted flyer. The newspapers have done more to gain for him his popularity than he has done for himself."

Penements To Go
Chicago, April 30.—Every tenement in Chicago's slums is to be razed immediately in an effort to stamp out tuberculosis and crime, Building Commissioner Christian P. Fadden announced.

Owners of 250 buildings already have received notification they must make repairs, put in safe condition or wreck their buildings within ten days.

MARKETS

MODERATE GAINS

New York, April 30.—The promise of a loosening up of money supplies buoyed up stock prices at the opening of the market today, and moderate gains were scored by the active shares.

Columbia Graphophone the mystery stock, jumped 2 1/2 to 83 1/2. Postum was up 1 1/2 to 75 1/2; Kennecott Copper up 1 1/2 to 95 1/2; American Tel and Tel up 1 1/2 to 232. United Aircraft started the day at 138.

The motor stocks were in good form, with General Motors up 1/2 at 84 1/2; Packard up 1/2 at 131 1/2; Studebaker up 1/2 at 82 1/2; Murray Body up 1/2 at 87 1/2; Briggs unchanged at 45 1/2.

The industrial and specialty stocks were carried forward on a confident wave of speculative buying at the beginning of trading today, in sharp contrast to yesterday's opening period, when prices dropped off 1 to 3 points on the fear of a new tie-up in the money market. Wall street bankers frankly stated that in their opinion the worst was over, for the time being at least, as far as the tightening of the money strings are concerned.

The high-flying utilities and specialties forged to the front as the leaders in the forward move. United Aircraft jumped 10 points to 147 1/2 and new gains of 1 to 4 points were scored by American and foreign power, St. Joe Lead, Murray Body, and Allied Chemical. The motors moved up under the stimulus of better earnings reports. Studebaker and Hupp advancing 3 points each in active trading. Coppers were also firm, and steels strong, with United States Steel common up a point.

The governor of the federal reserve board characterizes the present market as an "orgy of speculation" and similar harsh words are employed by other critics of the market. Combined with the 14 per cent renewal rate for money, this was calculated to choke off speculative enthusiasm and to drive off a part of the army of small speculators who have been leery of the market ever since the end of March smash.

Government Can't Conduct Nursery

Chicago, April 30.—The Federal government, unable to conduct a "nursery" in the words of a prohibition agent, today turned over to the juvenile authorities of Chicago, Helen Stakias, 12, charged with selling moonshine to prohibition agents.

The girl's parents, who conduct a grocery store, faced arraignment today on charges of possessing liquor.

When arrested yesterday, federal authorities could make no provision for keeping the girl under arrest as they did not wish her placed with older prisoners.

Telephone Company Bonds Are Approved

IMPARTIAL JURY FOR DRY PROBE HARD TO DRAFT

Hoover Admits This Job Is Proving Tough One; Many Ineligible

Washington, April 30.—President Hoover is encountering monumental difficulties in his efforts to find an impartial jury of eminent citizens to investigate the breakdown of law enforcement.

He resents its being called a "prohibition investigation" yet in the final analysis the proposed investigation comes down to just about that.

The White House admits the job is proving a tough one. The admission is pretty much superfluous, for the bare fact that Mr. Hoover has been working on this problem for nearly five months—without yet being ready to announce the personnel—constitutes in itself eloquent testimony to the troubles he is having.

Herbert Hoover doesn't labor for five months on any administrative problem without reaching some conclusion. It didn't take him nearly that long to select his cabinet.

Many Ineligible
The chief difficulty apparently is that the men the president wants on his commission either won't serve or are ineligible to serve, while those who are trying to get on it—most professional prohibitionists—are the type he doesn't want.

The White House has been unusually secretive about the maneuvering in the process of making this commission. It is known, however, that Mr. Hoover has offered places to several prominent men who have declined to serve because of personal convictions that prohibition is the root and branch of present-day lawlessness.

Others who have seemed desirable appointees have been found "ineligible" because of their previously expressed opinions concerning prohibition.

WANTS DECISION IN COAL RATES

Washington, April 30.—Motions were filed with the interstate commerce commission today by the Chesapeake and Ohio and Louisville and Nashville railroads asking dismissal of proceedings instituted by Ohio and Pennsylvania coal operators seeking a reopening of the lake cargo coal rate case.

These roads serve mines in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia shipping coal to the Great Lakes for trans-shipment to the northwest.

The Chesapeake and Ohio told the commission that it should bring the controversy as to rates on lake cargo coal to an end.

"It is urged," the motion said, "that the commission take this occasion to declare that at least under the conditions that now exist, the controversy should be brought to a close, and the industry as a whole be given the benefit of stabilized conditions, rather than suffer from the undue excitement and confusion that have hampered its development during the past five years or more."

At the same time the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad joined with the Ohio and Pennsylvania operators in asking that the case be reopened and that the commission issue an order requiring the southern roads to cancel the existing rates of $1.81 and $1.99 per ton on lake cargo shipments and establish rates of $1.91 and $2.06 per ton.

New Cucumber Is Raised In Colorado
Denver, April 30.—A new vegetable, of the cucumber species, has been originated by M. G. Van Sickle, a Denver horticulturist, and is being sold in Eastern markets in large quantities. It was revealed here recently.

The Colo-Cuke, as the vegetable is called, is the product of years of work crossing and recrossing different pollen of several common garden plants. Van Sickle is guarding the secret of its germination very closely, and as it is cut from the vine and sold in an immature or green state, the seeds cannot be obtained in this manner.

The name, Colo-cuke, comes from the words Colorado and Cucumber. The leaves on the plant are large and virile, and they obtain more food value from the thin, Colorado air than the roots of the plant gain from the ground.

The plant, which resembles a vine, is supported by a slanting trellis nearly eight feet high. The fruit hangs from the lower side of the lattice work, where it is easily cared for and cut.

Plants begin to produce about four months after the seeds are planted and continue to produce hundreds of Colo-cukes.

Van Sickle, noted horticulturist, in the greenhouses where the new plant is grown are several hives of bees. The bees, Van Sickle explained, are quite necessary in the growth of the plant as they transfer pollen from blossoms of one sex to the other. The Colo-cuke produces a male and female embryo.

Unique Mirage Seen
Lindau, April 30.—Dwellers on the northern shore of Lake Constance have enjoyed a unique spectacle in the form of a mirage.

Suddenly a clear picture of Immenstadt, with the Herzberg Palace, appeared in the heavens and remained visible for some time. No mirage has ever before been recorded on Lake Constance.

DAN'S ARROW FALLS SHORT OF ITS MARK

And Today Pastor's Daughter Sits In Jail While Young Lover Does K. P. Duty

Columbus, April 30.—Dan Cupid was in mourning here today, for one of his arrows has fallen short of its mark—which wouldn't have been so bad, if the miss hadn't caused the two targets trouble.

A dashing young soldier, John Tomlin, of Fort Hayes barracks here, and Miss Ruth Ludwick, 18, daughter of Rev. L. G. Ludwick of Corning, fell in love and decided to run away and be united in marriage.

May 1 was to have been the wedding date, but tomorrow will find the young miss in the work-house here and the Sir Galahad peeing potatoes as part of his "K. P." work in the barracks.

Everything would have been all right, if it had not been for the law.

But that instrument of government took the two into custody at the Union Station. The girl was charged with vagrancy, was fined $20 and was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. Tomlin was released to army officers and was given "K. P." for an indefinite term.

So, tomorrow, the day of the wedding will find the would-be bride and groom "on the inside looking at the outside," and hoping that the gallant Dan Cupid will devise some new dart that will get them out of their "trouble."

College Boys Tote Buckets, Dippers Around the Campus

Columbus, April 30.—Fifteen Ohio State university juniors were toting buckets and dippers around the college campus today.

No, your first guess is wrong, they are not "water-boys."

It is really an honor to be allowed to carry the utensils around, for they signify that the juniors have been elected to the Bucket and Dipper, men's junior honor society at the university. Membership in this order is considered as one of the highest honors that can be attained by upper-classmen at the university.

Among those chosen are: Wesley E. Pesler, Youngstown, Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, "All American" football player, basketball and baseball star.

Richard Larkins, East Liverpool, Phi Delta Theta, outstanding football and basketball player.

REDS UNABLE TO SOLVE DELIVERY OF CHICAGO ACE

Root Hurls Cubs to a 4-3 Win Over Cincinnati Swamped Again

New York, April 30.—Supporters of the Chicago Cubs had cause for cheer today in the showing of Pitcher Charlie Root against Cincinnati yesterday.

Root won 26 games in 1927 but was overworked and has never been the same man since. He had been taking his bumps this season but his 4-to-3 win over the Reds may be the tonic needed to start him off on the right foot this season.

Manager Joe McCarthy also is congratulating himself on the work of Amey, his rookie catcher. The hurler was the only backstop available after Hartnett, Gonzales, Amey and Grace were injured. Amey has been getting his hits regularly and started by cutting down a pair of would-be base stealers yesterday.

The veteran Clarence Mitchell pitched the Cardinals to a 7-to-3 triumph over the pirates in the only other National League game played yesterday. Burleigh Grimes, Pittsburgh hurler, was taken out of the game after his bare hand was struck by a line drive.

Johnny Johnson, who usually finds the Athletics easy pickings, was knocked out as the Mackmen plastered a crushing 10-to-1 defeat on the Yankees. Hass and Simmons, Cleveland home runs.

The Chicago White Sox achieved the dizzy heights of fourth place by swamping Cleveland, 13 to 4, for their third straight win.

Sam Gray, pitching ace of the St. Louis Browns, is the first big league hurler to win four games this season. He gained a 3-to-2 decision over Vic Sorrell of Detroit in ten innings.

Buried treasure is said to have been discovered in paying quantities by a party of American and British adventurers in Panama. The party is equipped with a new wireless device, which, it is claimed, indicates the presence of large quantities of buried metal.

Miller Huggins Picks Macks As Leading Pennant Obstacle

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 30.—Having neatly parried a few in Philadelphia with the aid of his chin, the good Mr. Huggins was frank in admitting upon his return to town today that the New York Yankees faced the most violent season the club has known since it began winning pennants back in 1921 and then forgot to stop.

"The club that beats the Philadelphia Athletics will win the pennant," said he, brightly using a phrase that was good back in 1898. The crack is a bromide, true enough, but it tells a story in ten words. It means that, in this gentleman's opinion, it is altogether possible that the Athletics will do no worse than first.

He still had a hangover from that 10-to-1 defeat the Yanks took in Philadelphia yesterday, so he neglected to discuss the inferiority

Kruskamp Leaves School At State

Columbus, O., April 30.—Harold "Hardy" Kruskamp, former Ohio State university football hero, who gained national fame in 1926 as one of the mainstays of the Buckeye eleven which was runner-up for the Big Ten championship that year, has dropped out of school and is "sailing the high seas," it was learned here today.

In all probability, the husky athlete, famous for his work as a blocking half-back, will not be back in school to try for a place on the 1929 Ohio State grid team.

Sign Jimmy Wright For Go With Perdue

Columbus, April 30.—Jimmy Wright of Dayton, welterweight boxer, has been signed by Promoter George Bricker to meet Jimmy Perdue of Huntington, W. Va., here Saturday night in the main go of the evening's program.

Wright is known throughout the state as a willing ringster. He always gives any opponent a real fight. Perdue is rapidly gaining a reputation as a welterweight, carrying a punch with a kick, and is clever on his feet.

complex to which the Athletics were alleged to be addicted. Mr. Huggins is very charitable that way.

The complex, as a matter of fact, was supposed to have been buried for all time on Friday in one of the most unusual ceremonies ever witnessed on a ball field. According to the story as I get it, the entire Philadelphia ball club was herded into its dressing room while the Yankees were at batting practice, the assumption being that Cornelius Mack didn't wish his impressionable young men to absorb too much atmosphere while Ruth and Gehrig were in there swinging.

The club won only five out of 22 with the Yanks last year, a performance that staked the Yanks to the pennant. So far this season, it has lost only two out of six and ought to have been arrested on both occasions. The first of these was Haas' loss to flies in the sun and a perfect ball game behind Jack Quinn. On Saturday, Simmons hit one off the premises with three on, tying the score in the eighth inning. After that, it should have been hard for the Athletics to lose and, in fact, it was. They had to make three errors in the ninth before they succeeded.

If anything was to convince them that inferior tendencies were theirs, that asinine ninth innings should have done it. Instead, they came out yesterday and got ten runs on eight hits, whereas the Yanks got one run on six hits. In the eighth, two hits were good for five runs and Cochrane added the final indignity by stealing home on Rhoades.

No, Mr. Huggins wasn't discussing other people's complexes today. He is very considerate that way.

Schultz Will Meet Columbus Wrestler

Columbus, April 30.—Carl Schultz, the German heavyweight wrestler, began working out here today in preparation for his match with the Columbus mauler, John Pesek, scheduled for Wednesday night.

The husky Teuton arrived here late yesterday, and seems to be in the best of condition. According to the advanced dope, the bout will be one of the best ever witnessed by local fans.

RED AND BLACK TO MEET SOUTH

Track Meet Arranged To Be Held Wednesday At Youngstown

Salem High school will meet Youngstown South at South Stadium, Youngstown, Wednesday afternoon in a dual field and track event.

W. J. Springer, Red and Black athletic director, announced today. The meet will start at 4 p. m. and Springer will select from its results, the team which he will take to the Carnegie Tech interscholastic event at Pittsburgh, Saturday.

Signs of weakness were apparent in several events of last Saturday's triangular meet with Akron Central and Canton. McKinley, Springer with J. M. Ruffner, assistant coach, is working on selecting a balanced aggregation which will make a strong showing against South and in competition with the schools at Pittsburgh.

The trip to the Tech meet will force Salem to drop from the Ohio Relays, which are held at Columbus Friday and Saturday.

Springer plans to take two men for each event to Pittsburgh.

Baseball Managers To Meet Thursday

A meeting for representatives of Salem baseball clubs, expecting to enter the city league this season, will be held at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Joe M. Kelley announced today.

Managers of both mushball and hardball aggregations should attend, Kelley stated, for it is planned to organize a league of both classes.

Plans for the leagues will be completed at the session, and, if possible, a schedule drawn up and play gotten under way within a week.

SPOTLIGHT ON STATE RELAYS AT OHIO STATE

Columbus, April 30.—With the thirty-fifth annual Pennsylvania relay carnival and the Drake relays being written into the annals of track history now interest was shifted to the scene of the sixth annual Ohio relays at Ohio State university Friday and Saturday of this week.

More than 2,500 athletes, representing approximately 250 schools and colleges, will arrive Thursday night and Friday to compete in the middle west's greatest track and field events of the year. Representing every section of the United States, this group will be one of the finest arrays of talent assembled on the cinder path this season.

The national spot-light will be turned on the 100-yard dash which will see the nation's best sprinters attempt to set a new mark, with George Simpson of Ohio State, the champion of the Penn relays, leading the field. Although he failed by one-tenth of a second to equal his own mark of 9.5 seconds, his time in the dual meet between Ohio State and the University of Pittsburgh, the black-haired Ohioan was two yards or more ahead of his nearest rival in all three heats of the century at Philadelphia Saturday.

LOANS up to $500

Nowadays with competition so great you usually get your money's worth no matter what you buy. And the same thing holds true when it comes to borrowing. You are almost sure to get what you pay for in financial service from most any reliable money-to-loan concern.

Of course there are many things to consider even when you borrow money—What of benefits and costs?—How about the standards and reputation of the lender?—In case of sickness or unemployment, then what?—Is the company fair, honorable, reliable and really interested in the human side, or is it all a matter of profit?

When you have found out about these things, and should you decide to borrow from 'The City Loan' you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have chosen an organization where counsel, capital and co-operation are always at your service.

Damascus Athletes Downed By Sebring

Sebring, April 30.—McKinley High school emerged the winner in a dual track meet with Damascus at Sebring Saturday afternoon. Sebring scored 83 points and Damascus 28.

A soft track coupled with a stiff wind blowing directly against the contestants slowed the time of runners. Coach Thomas J. Vernia said today. Both Damascus and Sebring found it stiff going and were unable to hang up high records.

Next Saturday afternoon Boardman will come to Sebring for a dual meet. The events will start at 1 o'clock, weather permitting.

MODEL T FORD
is still
a good car

THE Model T Ford led the motor industry for twenty years because of its sturdy worth, reliability and economy. Those same reasons continue to make it a good car.

As a matter of fact, nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords. Millions of them can be driven two, three and even five more years with reasonable care and proper replacements. Figures show that the average life is seven years.

Don't sacrifice your Model T, therefore, but take it to the Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of putting it in A1 shape. A very small expenditure may be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.

REDS UNABLE TO SOLVE DELIVERY OF CHICAGO ACE

Root Hurls Cubs to a 4-3 Win Over Cincinnati Swamped Again

New York, April 30.—Supporters of the Chicago Cubs had cause for cheer today in the showing of Pitcher Charlie Root against Cincinnati yesterday.

Root won 26 games in 1927 but was overworked and has never been the same man since. He had been taking his bumps this season but his 4-10-3 win over the Reds may be the tonic needed to start him off on the right foot this season.

Manager Joe McCarthy also is congratulating himself on the work of Andy, his rookie catcher. The batter was the only backstop available after Hartnett, Gonzales, Galle and Grace were injured. Andy has been getting his hits yesterday and started by cutting down a pair of would-be base stealers yesterday.

The veteran Clarence Mitchell pitched the Cardinals to a 7-3 triumph over the pirates in the only other National League game played yesterday. Burleigh Grimes, Pittsburgh hurler, was taken out of the game after his bare hand was struck by a line drive.

Johnny Johnson, who usually finds the Athletics easy pickings, was asked out as the Mackmen plastered a crushing 10-1 defeat on the Yankees. Hass and Simmons clouting home runs.

The Chicago White Sox achieved the dizzy heights of fourth place by swamping Cleveland, 13 to 4, for their third straight win.

Sam Gray, pitching ace of the St. Louis Browns, is the first big league hurler to win four games this season. He gained a 3-2 decision over Vic Sorrell of Detroit in ten innings.

Miller Huggins Picks Macks As Leading Pennant Obstacle

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 30.—Having neatly parried a few in Philadelphia with the aid of his chin, the good Mr. Huggins was frank in admitting upon his return to town today that the New York Yankees faced the most violent season the club has known since it began winning pennants back in 1921 and then forgot to stop.

"The club that beats the Philadelphia Athletics will win the pennant," said he, brightly using a phrase that was good back in 1898. The crack is a bromide, true enough, but it tells a story in ten words. It means that, in this gentleman's opinion, it is altogether possible that the Athletics will do no worse than first.

He still had a hangover from that 10-1 defeat the Yanks took in Philadelphia yesterday, so he neglected to discuss the inferiority

Kruskamp Leaves School At State

Columbus, O., April 30.—Harold "Hardy" Kruskamp, former Ohio State university football hero, who gained national fame in 1926 as one of the mainstays of the Buckeye eleven which was runner-up for the Big Ten championship that year, has dropped out of school and is "sailing the high seas," it was learned here today.

In all probability, the husky athlete, famous for his work as a blocking half-back, will not be back in school to try for a place on the 1929 Ohio State grid team.

Sign Jimmy Wright For Go With Perdue

Columbus, April 30.—Jimmy Wright of Dayton, welterweight boxer, has been signed by Promoter George Bricker to meet Jimmy Perdue of Huntington, W. Va., here Saturday night in the main go of the evening's program.

Wright is known throughout the state as a willing ringster. He always gives any opponent a real fight. Perdue is rapidly gaining a reputation as a welterweight, carrying a punch with a kick, and is clever on his feet.

complex to which the Athletics were alleged to be addicted. Mr. Huggins is very charitable that way.

The complex, as a matter of fact, was supposed to have been buried for all time on Friday in one of the most unusual ceremonies ever witnessed on a ball field. According to the story as I get it, the entire Philadelphia ball club was herded into its dressing room while the Yankees were at batting practice, the assumption being that Cornelius Mack didn't wish his impressionable young men to absorb too much atmosphere while Ruth and Gehrig were in there swinging.

The club won only five out of 22 with the Yanks last year, a performance that staked the Yanks to the pennant. So far this season, it has lost only two out of six and ought to have been arrested on both occasions. The first of these saw Haas lose two flies in the sun and a perfect ball game behind Jack Quinn. On Saturday, Simmons hit one off the premises with three on, tying the score in the eighth inning. After that, it should have been hard for the Athletics to lose and, in fact, it was. They had to make three errors in the ninth before they succeeded.

If anything was to convince them that inferior tendencies were theirs, that asinine ninth innings should have done it. Instead, they came out yesterday and got ten runs on eight hits, whereas the Yanks got one run on six hits. In the eighth, two hits were good for five runs and Cochrane added the final indignity by stealing home on Rhoades.

No, Mr. Huggins wasn't discussing other people complexes today. He is very considerate that way.

Schultz Will Meet Columbus Wrestler

Columbus, April 30.—Carl Schultz, the German heavyweight wrestler, began working out here today in preparation for his match with the Columbus mauler, John Pesek, scheduled for Wednesday night.

The husky Teuton arrived here late yesterday, and seems to be in the best of condition. According to the advanced dope, the bout will be one of the best ever witnessed by local fans.

RED AND BLACK TO MEET SOUTH

Track Meet Arranged To Be Held Wednesday At Youngstown

Salem High school will meet Youngstown South at South Stadium, Youngstown, Wednesday afternoon in a dual field and track event.

W. J. Springer, Red and Black athletic director, announced today. The meet will start at 4 p. m. and Springer will select from its results, the team which he will take to the Carnegie Tech interscholastic event at Pittsburgh, Saturday.

Signs of weakness were apparent in several events of last Saturday's triangular meet with Akron Central and Canton McKinley. Springer with J. M. Ruffner, assistant coach, is working on selecting a balanced aggregation which will make a strong showing against South and in competition with the schools at Pittsburgh.

The trip to the Tech meet will force Salem to drop from the Ohio Relays, which are held at Columbus Friday and Saturday.

Springer plans to take two men for each event to Pittsburgh.

Baseball Managers To Meet Thursday

A meeting for representatives of Salem baseball clubs, expecting to enter the city league this season, will be held at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Joe M. Kelley announced today.

Managers of both mushball and hardball aggregations should attend, Kelley stated, for it is planned to organize a league of both classes.

Plans for the leagues will be completed at the session, and, if possible, a schedule drawn up and play gotten under way within a week.

SPOTLIGHT ON STATE RELAYS AT OHIO STATE

Columbus, April 30.—With the thirty-fifth annual Pennsylvania relay carnival and the Drake relays being written into the annals of track history now interest today was shifted to the scene of the sixth annual Ohio relays at Ohio State university Friday and Saturday of this week.

More than 2,500 athletes, representing approximately 250 schools and colleges, will arrive Thursday night and Friday to compete in the middle west's greatest track and field events of the year. Representing every section of the United States, this group will be one of the finest arrays of talent assembled on the cinder path this season.

The national spot-light will be turned on the 100-yard dash which will see the nation's best sprinters attempt to set a new mark, with George Simpson of Ohio State, the champion of the Penn relays, leading the field. Although he failed by one-tenth of a second to equal his own mark of 9.5 seconds, his time in the dual meet between Ohio State and the University of Pittsburgh, the black-haired Ohioan was two yards or more ahead of his nearest rival in all three heats of the century at Philadelphia Saturday.

Damascus Athletes Downed By Sebring

Sebring, April 30.—McKinley High school emerged the winner in a dual track meet with Damascus at Sebring Saturday afternoon. Sebring scored 85 points and Damascus 28.

A soft track coupled with a stiff wind blowing directly against the contestants slowed the time of runners. Coach Thomas J. Vernia said today. Both Damascus and Sebring found it stiff going and were unable to hang up high records.

Next Saturday afternoon Boardman will come to Sebring for a dual meet. The events will start at 1 o'clock, weather permitting.

MODEL T FORD
is still
a good car

THE Model T Ford led the motor industry for twenty years because of its sturdy worth, reliability and economy. Those same reasons continue to make it a good car.

As a matter of fact, nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords. Millions of them can be driven two, three and even five more years with reasonable care and proper replacements. Figures show that the average life is seven years.

Don't sacrifice your Model T, therefore, but take it to the Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of putting it in A1 shape. A very small expenditure may be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.

MOVIES

In Playhouses Of Salem

"Man, Woman and Wife" ends its two-day stay at the Royal tonight. The State features on its bill "Chicago," with Phyllis Haver in the starring role, while "The Iron Mask," Douglas Fairbanks' noted sound picture, with talking introduction, continues at the Grand.

"MAN, WOMAN AND WIFE"

"Man, Woman and Wife" tells the story of a soldier who loses his courage while storming a machine gun nest during the war. He exchanges identification tags with a dead man and becomes a deserter. To his wife and former friends he is dead, but to Rita, who had loved him before his marriage, he becomes everything. In trying to keep his identity from the world, to save his wife, who has married again, he wages a tremendous struggle with himself. The picture ends in a sensational and surprising climax.

Norman Kerry in the starring role of Ralph Brandon, cowardly but human character whose love for his wife could not die through all the vicissitudes of an underworld existence, enacts the greatest part of his career.

Pauline Starke plays the featured role of Rita, whose mad infatuation for Kerry, otherwise helps, and hides him. Maxine Nixon appears as the wife of Kerry, and Kenneth Harlan as his best friend. Others in the stellar cast are Crauford Kent and Byron Douglas.

"THE IRON MASK"

Douglas Fairbanks will open the story of "The Iron Mask," which is at the Grand all week, by stepping from a huge tapestry representing The Three Musketeers and speak the prelude to this story of the undying love and valor of the brave guardsmen in whose hands rested the safety of a kingdom. This spoken prelude will vividly and dramatically present the theme of the story as well as introduce an entirely new and perhaps revolutionary method in sound films. The complete film will be presented with sound and orchestral synchronization as well as the spoken interludes in which the various important characters voice their intents and motives.

To the world Douglas Fairbanks brings the romance and color which it craves. The famous Fairbanks new touch of tenderness and true smile and gallantry are there, plus a dramatic feeling.

Leon Barry as the intellectual Athos, Stanley J. Sandford, as the swashbuckling Porthos, and Gino Corrado, as the amorous Aramis, are admirable companions for D'Artagnan. Nigel de Brulier makes an impressive Richelieu, who shrewdly controls the destinies of France through his mastery of his king, Louis XIII. Played with perfect feppery by Rolphe Sedan. Ulrich Haupt is a sinister de Rochefort, villain extraordinary, whose plans for the overthrow of Louis XIV's throne are prevented by the quick wits and keen blades of the four musketeers.

"CHICAGO"

This is an admirable screen version of Maurine Watkins' stage success of the same name. The story deals with the murder of a man by a heartless vixen whose beauty rouses the sympathy of the public, and the great notoriety she attains results in her acquittal by a sympathetic jury. Miss Haver, is Roxie Hart, while Mr. Varenti, is her husband.

Robert Edeson, as the criminal lawyer whose shady tactics free his client, Virginia Bradford, as the maid; T. Roy Barnes, as a reporter; May Rebon, as the prison matron, and Julia Payne, as a murderess who envies Roxie's popularity, added vastly to the enjoyableness of the picture. The action is dramatic and there is much enjoyable comedy. The direction by Frank Urson left little to be desired.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, April 30. — The silhouette of the evening gown has imperceptibly but completely changed this spring. Skirts are long and full but never long all the way around and the short, straight dress and the picture gown are conspicuously absent.

The longest skirts in Paris for evening are long in the front as well as the back and sometimes with tiny trains. The extra length is achieved by fluttering points and bands posed just a few inches above the knees on a long slim sheath. Necklines are cut very low in a V-shape and borders them in transparent materials to keep the effect as light as possible.

A designer, who has been a strong advocate of the low neckline top with narrow shoulder-straps, continues the fashion.

Another does a great deal with the shoulder strap decollete, using various ideas to keep the strap at the front or two ends taken in the fabric of the bodice and tied across the decollete at the back.

Printed chiffon is also used for a number of soft, supple evening gowns which end in fluttering points or scallops, their length is not concentrated in any one spot. A leader maintains the slender line on a delightful printed chiffon gown until nearly the bottom of the skirt where it breaks out into a flounce opening in points over a full under-ruffle of lace. The pattern is pink, vermillion and pinky-yellow on black.

A decidedly higher waistline is indicated by a graceful gown of dark blue and white, a flat yoke at just below it.

About eighty per cent. of the more than 5,000 tractors in use in Roumania are of American origin.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Pick up a bunch of asparagus in your hand before you buy it. It should be heavy for its size. If it feels unexpectedly light, it's an indication that the stalks are dry, and therefore tough. There are a few other tests for good asparagus. The stalks should be regular, straight, smooth and the tips should be solid. If the tips spread brokenly, or the stalks are wobbly and misshapen, the asparagus is not so good.

A good bunch is an economy even when it's not cheap. Because every bit of it has its use. Fresh asparagus is most delicious when served hot, with a simple sauce. Whatever is left may be served chilled as a salad. And to be sure there's no waste, boil only the edible part of the asparagus. With a pointed knife, feel from the bottom of the stalks to determine how much is too hard to be eaten with a fork. (About 5 inches from the tip, more or less is usually tender enough to be eaten completely. But the lower part should be cut off before boiling the asparagus. This tougher section has plenty of flavor, and boiled by itself in a quart of water until it can be rubbed to a pulp, it makes the foundation for an excellent cream of asparagus soup.

Several varieties of asparagus are now in the market. There is the thin, green type, which, when fresh and prime, can be eaten almost entirely from tip to bottom of the stalk. Then there is the thicker green asparagus, which yields less of an edible portion. You have to cut off from 3 to 6 inches of the stalk. This is also true of the Oyster Bay asparagus, which is perhaps the most attractive in appearance, with its fat, creamy stalks and tips shading from green to pale purple.

It's wasteful to scrape asparagus. If the asparagus is good, and then buy, it is fresh and clean, and then the little scales must be snipped off the stem, and the asparagus given a brief wash in cold water. Tie up in a bunch, after cutting off the inedible part of the stem. Stand the bunch in a saucepan, and pour in boiling water until only an inch of the tips is exposed. Cover and cook for 20 minutes over a moderate flame. Then add 1 teaspoon of salt and cook about 5 minutes—or longer, if the asparagus is thick and not tender by that time. Then lift out, place on a hot platter, and pour off the water. Of course, the water in which the asparagus was cooked should be saved to be used for sauce or soup.

Send asparagus to the table accompanied by a bowl of the sauce that is to go with it. Some people prefer to get the whole flavor of asparagus unsullied by any seasonings. A pleasant touch, however, is plain butter melted until light brown and mixed with a little salt and pepper. Or mix with lemon juice.

Baker Asparagus. Cut the tender part of boiled asparagus into 3-inch lengths. Put in a baking dish. Pour over them 3 tablespoons of butter and 1 cup of cream or top milk. Heat in oven and serve at once.

If desired, breadcrumbs or grated cheese may be sprinkled on top and the dish left under the broiler instead of over the flame. When the cheese begins to brown, remove from oven and serve.

Any leftover boiled asparagus can be cut into 3-inch lengths, piled on lettuce or endive and served with a French or any of the mayonnaise dressings.

Soft water keeps clothes white

Hard water always leaves clothes gray, no matter how much you wash and rinse. Hard water has something in it with which the soap combines. Scum forms at once. This scum gets into clothes. You never can rinse it all out.

Soften hard water with Melo and you have a very fine cleaner, with or without soap. Scum doesn't form in this water. Clothes washed in it are as white as snow. Melo gives soap more effect on clothes. Get a can of Melo today at your grocer's.

Farm Notes Over Ohio

"This looks like a year for bad apple scab due to the early maturity of the scab fungus and rainy periods that have discharged the spores, so applications frequent enough to keep the foliage well covered should pay for the labor, and cost of the fungicides used," said H. A. Runnels, asst. Pathologist of the Wooster Experiment Station when visiting Mahoning county last week.

The calyx, or petal-fall spray on apples should be applied when the last of the petals are falling and before the calyxes on the young fruits are closed.

Materials to be used:
Liquid lime sulfur—1 gallon.
Or dry lime-sulfur—3 pounds.
Arsenate of lead—1-1 1/4 pounds.
Water to make—50 gallons.
If dust is used, 85-15 sulfur-arsenate of lead dust is suggested.
If aphid or red bug is serious, add 1-2 pint of nicotine sulfate to each 50 gallons of spray.
The arsenate of lead is to kill codling moth worms, curculio and canker worms feeding on the foliage. If thoroughly applied to the calyx cup of the young apple it prevents codling moth worms from entering the fruit through the calyx during the entire summer and fall. Only thorough work will do this.

Old Coins Under Inspection For Age

Providence, R. I. April 25.—Two gold coins which are believed to have been struck about 35 years after the death of Christ, will be offered for inspection of the Numismatic Society of New York in an effort to determine their origin and if possible their age.

The coins, which are the property of the family of Dr. Ignazio Verde, local physician, are believed by Henry A. Green, local authority on Greek coins, to be of Byzantine origin and about 1900 years old.

One of the coins, smooth and about the size of a quarter, is marked by a cross on one side, and by a face, full view, with a helmet, on the other. The second coin is thicker and smaller. One side bears the imprint of a cross, surrounded by characters. The reverse side is marked off in sections, each containing a letter of some ancient language.

Husband Said I Was Getting Young Again

Alliance, O., Woman Learns How to Restore Health and Energy in the Spring

"Like most old people, I felt bad every Spring. When the bright sun began to warm things up, my old bones ached. I wanted just to lie around and do nothing and I didn't even do my housework up to the minute. I had thought for years that this was only natural.

"My husband had been relieved of catarrh during the winter by World's Tonic, and there was about half a bottle left. One morning I felt so bad that I began to take it," said Mrs. N. Hammell to the World's Tonic man.

"In just a day or so I began to note the difference. The bad taste left my mouth, and my appetite improved. In a few days more my aches and pains left me, my bowels became regular, my foul breath disappeared and my skin cleared up. I can not eat anything and it does not bother me. I got another bottle and before that was all taken my husband said I had begun to look young again! I declare I didn't know the right medicine could do so much. I felt the years roll away, and soon was full of energy. Neighbors said I was overworking myself in my flower garden. But I knew better. I was so full of life I couldn't sit still. Now I know why. In the spring my system needed clearing up. World's Tonic did that for me, and I've never felt better."

You can obtain this valuable medicine of J. H. Lease or any reliable drug store. (A-138). Adv.
